Our selection of rosé champagnes

Laure Gasparotto and Ophélie Neiman have blind tasted nearly 130 bottles and retained 65. [...]

Veuve Fourny & fils

«Les Monts de Vertus», premier cru, rosé

This extra-brut champagne is a bled rosé. So more robust and structured than most rosés (with or without bubbles) And, in fact, behind its intense colour, this wine which comes from a pure pinot noir plot, reveals the flavours and character of a great red table wine, in addition to having a structured foundation. This is confirmed when tasted, it is generous, and it lasts. We highly recommend it. [...]
