

LEXPRESS

December 19, 2025

Discover our selection of Champagnes to gift (or treat yourself) this holiday season

By Philippe Bidalon

Still unsure which bottle of champagne will take pride of place at your Christmas or New Year's table?

Let us guide you...

A mix of hidden gems from years past and delightful new creations will captivate the palates of connoisseurs. Our curated selection of bottles to gift—or enjoy yourself—brings together enthusiasts of today's and yesterday's bubbles...

Veuve Fourny & Fils Monts de Vertus 2017

Charles and Emmanuel Fourny have transformed their small family estate in Vertus—a premier cru at the heart of the Côte des Blancs—into a trusted name for lovers of precise and authentic champagnes. Primarily crafted from village Chardonnays, with little to no dosage, their wines truly shine after a few years of aging. Take this parcel-specific cuvee : its style is remarkably pure, mineral, and saline.